There is a lot of mythology about a writer's life and routine, and very little of it is true. It's one reason why that famous misquote from Hemingway is so popular, "There is nothing to writing. How do you define life writing? Life Writing is the blanket term used to describe all written non-fiction recordings of memories. This includes biographies, autobiographies, memoirs, diaries and blogs, personal essays and collections of letters or emails. Life writing is the recording of memories, and experiences, whether one's own or another's. This applies to many genres and practices, under which can be found autobiography, biography, memoir, diaries, letters, testimonies, personal essays and, more recently, digital forms such as blogs and email.
