Active learning is a form of learning in which teaching strives to involve students in the learning process more directly than in other methods. One of the most obvious ways to increase your classroom charisma is to increase the amount of active learning in your class. Not only will you find it easier to keep students engaged during one of the most difficult times of the year (the warm weather days of spring), but you will find that your students will retain information with greater ... Active learning is based on constructivism, a learning theory that asserts that learners construct their own understanding of a topic by building upon their prior knowledge. Cooperative learning is a technique that allows students to learn from each other and gain important interpersonal skills.
