“Betrayal in the City” is powerful in its reach and subject matter, as well as its bleak portrayal of social and political diseases that rot from the top down. Indeed, by showing how complex the problem of corrupt government is, Imbuga’s play rightly positions itself as a strong voice in the continuous struggle for freedom, in Africa and other suffering countries. Betrayal in the City is a story of Kafira, a fictional Independent country headed by Boss. The country is experiencing political upheavals that are a result of an oppressive dictatorial government. Social evils such as corruption, nepotism, arbitrary arrests and assassinations have become common in Kafira. Scene 1 It is set at Adika's grave. the grave appears to have been burnt and there is a bowl of coins on it. Nina and Doga, Adika's parents are approaching the grave in the morning to prepare for the shaving ceremony. Betrayal in the City Act 2, Scene 4 Summary.
