For us parents, we know how important it is for our children to choose the right friends. We see how easily our children are influenced by their peers, and therefore, the wrong peer group can daily lead them off the narrow path and toward destruction. Enter by the narrow gate; for wide is the gate and broad is the way that leads to destruction, and there are many who go in by it. Because narrow is the gate and difficult is the way which leads to life, and there are few who find it. Many think the narrow path involves living a life of fearful obedience to a set of rules and regulations, whereas the wide path is the life of a back slider.
