

Download Journalism Education In Europe And North America: An International Comparison (the Hampton Press Communication Series)

The history of American newspapers begins in the early 18th century with the publication of the first colonial newspapers. American newspapers began as modest affairs—a sideline for printers. They became a political force in the campaign for American independence. Following independence the first article of U.S. Constitution guaranteed freedom of the press. News is information about current events. This may be provided through many different media: word of mouth, printing, postal systems, broadcasting, electronic communication, or through the testimony of observers and witnesses to events.. Common topics for news reports include war, government, politics, education, health, the environment, economy, business, fashion, and entertainment, as well ... Use our research database to search for faculty and staff that have research interests similar to your own. Department-Specific Research Opportunities Tove Skutnabb-Kangas Page 1 13/02/2018. Bibliography on multilingualism, multilingual and Indigenous/tribal/minority/ minoritised (ITM) education; linguistic human rights; endangered languages, their maintenance and revitalisation; linguistic genocide and crimes against humanity in education; linguistic imperialism and the subtractive spread of English; and the relationship between linguistic ... - Journalism Education In Europe And North America: An International Comparison (the Hampton Press Communication Series)